LAU: Beirut and Byblos Campuses

LAU's two campuses are situated around 43 kilometers apart, and the University provides transportation services between both campuses. The physical facilities include the following amenities and features:

- Academic spaces with smart and lecture capture classrooms, laboratories, computer labs, workshops and research labs
- Academic support spaces housing institutes, centers, and seminar rooms
- State-of-the art library spaces
- Recreational and Athletic spaces with cafeterias, cyber cafes, student lounges, music rooms, recreational rooms, swimming pool, indoor and outdoor basketball and tennis courts, gymnasiums, dancing rooms, multipurpose activities rooms, and fitness centers
- Common spaces include video-conferencing rooms, multi-purpose rooms, exhibition halls, theaters, etc.
- Parking spaces for vehicles, disabled access and bike racks
- Student Housing spaces for safe student-life environment
- Campus Accessibility with dedicated ramps, pathways, and elevators

Beirut Campus:

The Beirut campus is located in Quraytem, Ras Beirut, in the vicinity of Hamra. Its 27,500 square meters land footprint encompasses 15 buildings with a total built-up area of 76,370 square meters. It is a vibrant and friendly place for an active learning environment.

Byblos Campus:

The Byblos campus is situated in the hillside Blat district, overlooking the ancient city of Byblos and the Mediterranean Sea. The site has developed steadily since its inception in 1987 to a land lot area of 317,643 square meters which includes 17 buildings with a built-up area of 86,100 Square meters hosting LAU's seven schools.

Choosing a Campus:

Both LAU campuses offer all university facilities and amenities including library, cafeteria, dorms, gym, labs, clubs and student services etc. Both campuses are also home to the Schools of A&S and Business, the 2 main Schools of the MEPI-TL program. The Byblos campus alone houses the School of Nursing, another MEPI program. The following link provides detailed information on the availability of Majors on each campus <http://www.lau.edu.lb/academics/programs/>. Beirut campus is urban and within walking distance to shops, banks and restaurants. Byblos campus is more rural and a short shuttle ride from the historic seaside town of Jbayl, both a thriving business town and a touristic destination.
